What is the Self-Advocacy Leadership Series?

The DD Council and Massachusetts Advocates Standing Strong have developed an eight-week leadership series to provide education, training, support and mentoring to individuals with developmental and or intellectual disabilities, to develop and improve leadership skills.

- Participate in fun learning activities.
 - Build self-confidence.
 - Expand your social circles.
 - Learn how to make better decisions.
 - Practice self-advocacy and leadership skills.
 - Be part of a team.

How will it work?

- Ten applicants are chosen along with supporters in a chosen region to participate in the Leadership Series.
- Class topics include: Learning about self, Communication, Feelings and Values, Team Building, Taking political action, Leadership, How to give a speech and GRADUATION.

How an applicant is chosen.

- Must be a person with a disability
- We encourage people from diverse backgrounds
- Applicants must be willing to attend and participate in all classes.
- Applicants are selected based on their answers to the application questions and on meeting the deadline due date for the application.

WE TRAVEL ALL OVER MASSACHUSETTS. CALL US IF YOU'RE INTERESTED IN HAVING US TEACH THIS FREE SERIES IN YOUR AREA.
